

Special Revenue – Grants Management

Purpose

Special Revenue Funds are used to account for the proceeds of specific revenue sources (other than General Fund and Capital Funds) that are legally restricted to expenditures for specified purposes.

Current Number of Funds

90+

Current value of Special Revenue Funds

$39+ Million

Major Sources

Federal Government (Programs and competitive grants), State Funds (Programs and competitive grants), Private Companies (Grants and donations), & Foundations (Grants and Donations).

Reporting and Monitoring

Most funds require yearly application and reporting processes. Many funds are monitored by the state (yearly or 3-year cycles). Many funds have a complex claiming process to receive the funds after the services are provided. Reports include Excess cost, Maintenance of Effort, and Comparability.

Narrative

The Special Revenue office has four staff persons. The Director and one accountant are directly funded by the BCSD, while two other positions –Title I Coordinator and one accountant– are funded by both the Federal government. The Federal government requires a specific accounting for each portion of the salaries. All activities herein have been and will be accomplished within the confines of available personnel and budgets.
