Our cruises in the Mediterranean and Northern Europe provide a terrific way to explore the continent's many cultures and historic landmarks. We've secured the deepest discounts available for European cruises -- you can save up to 84% on Mediterranean departures in 2018, for example.

Today I'll provide some tips to help anyone heading in that direction find a great cruise at a great price. Click any link below for a complete list of options.

Hello All,

We just came back today on limited hours from the holiday break/snow storm. Some of us are more fortunate than others to pick up athletics uninterrupted while others have county roads that are still unsafe.

For this reason to ensure all involved are safe we are postponing our Varsity Basketball contests at Beaufort High for Saturday, Jan 6, 2018. The make- up date has not been decided yet.

Thanks and please let us know you get this so we can cancel the officials.

Subject: Terrific New Cruise Deals -- plus -- When to Book Your Cruise

Dear Mr. Smith,

We've negotiated money-saving deals with Royal Caribbean, Holland America, Crystal, Cunard, Azamara and Cruise & Maritime Voyages. Below you'll find our signature deep discounts and free shipboard credits, which are as good as cash on the ship and can be used toward onboard purchases not covered in the cruise fare, like boutique purchases and spa treatments. All of these offers must be booked this month.

Royal Caribbean is offering our customers huge discounts -- save up to 82% -- and exclusive shipboard credits of up to $250 per cabin across all 2018 cruises and cruise tours, including tropical escapes to the Bahamas and Caribbean this winter. Book by January 14. See dates and prices.

Holland America has reduced fares by up to 76% for Vacations To Go, and the line also is providing exclusive shipboard credits of up to $550 per cabin on most cruise and cruise tour departures. Book by January 15. See dates and prices.

Crystal has reduced prices by up to $1,000 per cabin for our customers -- for discounts of up to 76% -- and also is offering shipboard credits of up to $2,515 per cabin exclusively to Vacations To Go on select oceangoing cruises. Your upfront fare for Crystal's six-star cruises includes gratuities, fine wines, Champagne, premium spirits and nonalcoholic beverages. Book by January 22. See dates and prices.

In addition, Crystal is offering our customers savings of up to $600 per cabin and shipboard credits of up to $250 per cabin on its European river sailings. Book by January 22. See dates and prices.

Cunard has slashed fares by up to 73% for our customers. Also pay a 50% reduced deposit and receive shipboard credits of up to $700 per cabin on most departures. On select sailings, get free drinks when you book a suite. Past guests receive free gratuities on certain voyages. Book by January 17. See dates and prices.

Azamara is offering our customers terrific discounts of up to 75% and exclusive shipboard credits of up to $500 per cabin, plus free Internet when you book ocean-view cabins or higher on select sailings. Azamara is known for scheduling longer stays and more overnights in port so that guests can experience more of the destination. Rates include gratuities, drinks and, on most cruises, a nighttime shore excursion called "AzAmazing Evening." Book by January 15. See dates and prices.

Cruise & Maritime Voyages is offering our customers savings of up to 74%. Also enjoy exclusive shipboard credits of up to $350 per cabin on most sailings, plus kids age 15 and under sail for just $99 on select summer 2018 cruises. Book by January 31. See dates and prices.

As always, these offers are for new bookings only and subject to availability. Restrictions may apply. Past guests of some cruise lines may see better rates on select sailings.

I regularly receive emails from customers asking when they should book to ensure they get the very best price for their cruise. The truth is, the best time to book can vary depending on your destination, the number of people in your party and a few other factors.

Generally, though, I recommend waiting until about 60 to 90 days before departure to book. Most ships will be marked down around this time, and these prices usually prove to be the lowest ever offered for that departure -- lower than early bird discounts, and lower than prices available within the last couple of weeks.

Most cruises departing between now and the end of March have been marked down to the lowest rate that will be available, so if you are planning to cruise during this period, it's time to shop and give us a call. For a list of the very best deals still available during this time frame, click here.

If you're planning to cruise after the first quarter of the year, you may want to wait to see if deeper discounts develop before booking. There are, of course, a few notable exceptions. Here they are:

First, families hoping to travel during the peak June-August period and needing one stateroom that accommodates more than four people (often called a "family suite") or two staterooms with a private connecting door should book now. Such staterooms are few in number and will be filled far in advance of departure because of the high demand for cruises among families. You can use our Find A Cruise Ship tool to identify which ships offer such staterooms by clicking here. (Keep in mind that two staterooms may cost less than a family suite.)

Staterooms that accommodate three or four passengers are more plentiful but still limited in number, and summer sailings for families needing these staterooms should be booked no later than the end of March. Virtually all cruise ships built in the past 20 years have at least a few cabins that will accommodate three or four travelers.

Next, families and other groups needing eight or more cabins should book now for all departures between now and the end of August, as arranging cabins close to one another can become more problematic as departure approaches. You can book anytime in the next couple of months if you are sailing in the traditionally slow fall season. Click here for more information about group cruises.

If you want a specific type of stateroom in a specific location, such as a midship balcony cabin or something near the ship's spa or main pool -- booking early ensures the best selection.

Finally, those who must cruise on a specific ship on a specific departure date may want to book now. Being flexible on ship and date and watching our site regularly for price cuts (especially our world-famous 90-Day Ticker) will net the lowest price, but any particular sailing could sell out early, without resorting to deep discounting. Don't wait too long holding out for an additional discount if only one sailing will suit you.

Hurricane Harvey destroyed their school. Now they share a building with their rival.

The Washington Post

The final Summer Creek High School bell chimed, sending more than 2,000 chatty, energetic students into the parking lot and headed for home. But before Principal Brent McDonald could make his way outside to direct traffic, a murmur of voices began to swell inside the school. Even though the main hallway was now empty, the noise grew louder. It was coming from behind a gate separating the hallway and the athletic wing, where a new group of teenagers had formed. READ MORE

Western Kentucky high schools shelve rivalries to stand with Marshall County

Lexington Herald-Leader

Across Western Kentucky, rivalries and competition were put aside as high school athletes and students demonstrated support for Marshall County High School. Marshall canceled its basketball games after the shooting that left two 15-year-old students dead and 14 wounded by gunfire, but the games went on throughout the rest of the state. Moments of silence were held before most matchups, including McCracken County High School's game against Carlisle County. READ MORE

But what Fort Vancouver, Washington's boys basketball coach doesn't understand is why it feels like there can a stigma behind showing signs of weakness in sport settings. That stigma, he poses, could be one of the reasons mental health is not talked about as much as he thinks it should be in high school sports. It's one of the reasons he looks forward to findings of a new WIAA study aimed at understanding mental health among high school athletes. READ MORE

Subject: Fantastic Offers from Holland America, Norwegian, Silversea, Azamara, Costa and P&O

Dear Mr. Smith,

We've negotiated some fantastic money-saving offers with Holland America, Norwegian, Silversea, Azamara, Costa and P&O. They include free shipboard credits, which can be used toward onboard purchases not covered in the cruise fare, like shore excursions and boutique purchases.

Holland America is offering our customers huge discounts -- save up to 75%. Plus, enjoy exclusive shipboard credits of up to $550 per cabin on most cruises and cruise tours. Book by February 5. See dates and prices.

Norwegian has slashed rates by up to 85% for Vacations To Go. Our customers also can receive exclusive shipboard credits of up to $390 per cabin on all 2018 cruises and cruise tours. Book an ocean-view cabin or higher on select sailings and choose two of the following amenities: 1) a beverage package for two, 2) a specialty dining package that includes up to four meals for two guests, 3) 250 minutes of Internet or 4) a shore excursion credit of $50 per cabin, per port. See dates and prices.

Silversea is offering Vacations To Go customers savings of up to 85% and exclusive shipboard credits of up to $1,500 per cabin across all 2018 cruises. Your Silversea fare includes onboard gratuities, complimentary beverages including wine and spirits and butler service. Book by February 5. See dates and prices.

Azamara is offering our customers discounts of up to 74% and exclusive shipboard credits of up to $700 per cabin, plus free Internet when you book ocean-view cabins or higher on select sailings. Azamara is known for scheduling longer stays and more overnights in port so that guests can experience more of the destination. Rates include gratuities, drinks and, on most cruises, a nighttime shore excursion called "AzAmazing Evening." Book by February 5. See dates and prices.

Costa has slashed rates by up to 68% for our customers, plus kids sail free on select voyages. Costa offers Italian-style hospitality, cuisine and entertainment aboard its ships, which sail itineraries in the Caribbean, Mediterranean and other destinations worldwide. See dates and prices.

P&O Cruises, the most popular cruise line in Britain, is offering our customers shipboard credits of up to $1,400 per cabin on a variety of cruises. See dates and prices.

As always, these offers are for new bookings only and subject to availability. Restrictions may apply. Past guests of some cruise lines may see better rates on select sailings.

I receive several hundred cruise-related questions every week from my readers, so today I'd like to share a few inquiries and answers.

Q: I see a number of repositioning cruises on your 90-Day Ticker. What are repositioning cruises?

A: These unique itineraries are offered when cruise lines reposition their ships between seasonal destinations. Some of the most popular repositionings are trans-Atlantic voyages from the Caribbean to the Mediterranean in the spring -- you'll see a few examples of this on our 90-Day Ticker now -- or the reverse in the fall. You can find a selection of repositionings throughout the year, though, as ships move from region to region around the globe. For example, a ship that has finished up a summer of cruising in Alaska might relocate in the fall, via the Panama Canal, to a Florida port for a winter of Caribbean sailing.

It's a win-win for cruise lines that would rather operate a ship with passengers on board, and for travelers who enjoy laid-back sea voyages. Best of all, repositioning cruises often boast lower than average per-diem prices. Here are a few examples departing this spring.

A 13-night cruise from Miami to London departing April 21, starting from $38 per person, per night (FastDeal #14147).

A 14-night cruise from Barbados to Lisbon departing March 24, starting from $49 per person, per night (FastDeal #26681).

A 14-night cruise from Fort Lauderdale to Rome departing March 28, starting from $49 per person, per night (FastDeal #10021).

A 16-night cruise from Galveston to Barcelona departing April 16, starting from $46 per person, per night (FastDeal #24808).

These voyages start in one port and end in another, which means you'll need to purchase one-way flights. Usually, port calls along the way are sparse; most repositioning itineraries are filled with days at sea as your ship crosses the ocean. But if you love the idea of using a cruise ship as a leisurely way to travel between destinations, click here to see all of our repositioning cruises in the next 12 months.

Q: If I book my cruise now and the price goes down later, will I be able to get the lower rate?

A: Cruise prices fluctuate up and down all the time at the cruise lines' discretion, depending on how well a cruise is selling and the number of days remaining until departure. Unfortunately, the decision of whether to allow a customer to re-ticket at a lower rate is never made by Vacations To Go. Every cruise line has a specific policy that it does not deviate from, and we must abide by that policy.

Some lines will adjust the price for your cruise if a lower rate becomes available for the category you've reserved, as long as you have not yet made final payment and still are outside the penalty period, which typically begins 75 to 90 days in advance of departure. Most cruise lines, however, do not adjust the price. Your Vacations To Go cruise counselor will be able to advise you on each cruise line's policy.

Q: Can I book the airfare for my cruise with you, and a hotel stay in the departure port city before the cruise?

A: Yes, your Vacations To Go travel counselor will be happy to price and book airfare to and from your cruise's embarkation and disembarkation city or cities, as well as pre- and post-cruise hotel stays. We do recommend that our customers who have a long-haul flight to their embarkation port (for example, from the U.S. to Europe) arrive one or two days early. This will ensure that you don't miss your ship departure due to airline delays, and it will afford you time to get over jet lag and do some sightseeing before boarding the ship.

Q: Are cruises all-inclusive? What can I expect to pay extra for on board?

A: The upfront rate of your cruise includes your cabin, meals and snacks, entertainment, children's programs, a diverse array of activities day and night and, of course, all transportation between the ports on your itinerary -- making it the best vacation value there is.

On most ships, alcoholic beverages and soft drinks, spa treatments, optional shore excursions, gratuities and meals in specialty restaurants will incur an additional cost. There are a handful of six-star lines that include all beverages (including alcoholic and nonalcoholic drinks, sodas, bottled water and specialty coffees) and gratuities in the upfront rate, and while these sailings are never inexpensive, they do provide an outstanding value in luxury travel.

Q: We are planning an extended family cruise for this summer. Two in our group follow a gluten-free diet, and another is a vegetarian. As for me, I need to watch my sodium. Will a cruise ship be able to meet our needs?

A: Most cruise lines are equipped to accommodate special dining needs -- including food allergies and gluten-free, low-fat, low-sodium, low-sugar, vegetarian and kosher needs -- as long as they receive advance notice. Please inform your Vacations To Go travel counselor of any dietary requirements as soon as possible. They can contact the cruise line's special needs department and communicate all necessary arrangements for your diet on board.

Here's a list of specialty cruises, discounts and resources we offer. Some are available only to certain types of travelers, and others are available to all Vacations To Go customers. Click the links below for more information:

Subject: Superintendent's Board of Education meeting summary two-day work session

Superintendent's Board of Education meeting summary
Two-day work session, February 2-3, 2018

Day 1 – February 2, 2018

Chair Earl Campbell convened the first day of the Board's two-day work session at 8:39 a.m.

Motion to remove the legislative plan from Saturday's agenda. The agenda was approved as amended.

Pledge of allegiance and invocation. A moment of silence for a former principal of St. Helena Elementary, Mildred Wilson.

Public Comment: A community member spoke about recent news media reports on the school district and the roof at Hilton Head Island High School, which was recently inspected by the South Carolina Department of Education and found to be structurally sound.

General Counsel Drew Davis presented on the state Freedom of Information Act and how that law specifies what constitutes a Board meeting. Mr. Davis addressed the Board's questions.

Mr. Campbell made a statement regarding the professionalism of district staff. He also made a statement regarding Board members' communications, and there was a brief discussion.

The Board discussed the Committee of the Whole format and suggested different options for the meeting. Board members discussed a Beaufort County Channel proposal to provide video services at Board meetings.

Chief Finance and Operations Officer Tonya Crosby presented on the district's procurement processes and requirements, and she and Director of Internal Controls Reggie Murphy addressed Board members' questions.

The Board discussed work performed by outside contractors. Mr. Campbell said that when outside contractors are employed by the Board, the scope of their work should be specifically defined.

Chief Administrative and Human Resources Officer Alice Walton and Coordinator of Protective Services David Grissom discussed a recent incident report filed by law enforcement responding to a situation at Battery Creek High School. Ms. Walton, Mr. Grissom, Mr. Davis, and Dr. Moss addressed the Board's questions.

The Board discussed a request from the Teacher Forum to have a regular spot on Board meeting agendas. The Board requested more information from the Teacher Forum before a decision.

Dr. Moss presented Battery Creek High Principal Chad Cox's request to hold the school's 2018 graduation ceremony at 2 p.m. on a Saturday rather than at 7 p.m. on a weekday, and he addressed the Board's questions. The Board will vote on the request at its next Board meeting.

McNair Law Firm Attorney Ms. Frannie Heizer presented on state laws regulating what Board members and school district employees are allowed to do – and what they are not allowed to do – in advance of school bond referendum votes.

Ms. Crosby presented on the preliminary 2018-19 budget, including a budget overview and schedule. She addressed the Board's questions. Facilities, Planning, and Construction Coordinator Robert Oetting presented on the district's five-year Capital Improvement Plan, asked Board members to identify priorities, and addressed the Board's questions.

Dr. Moss provided an estimated cost for a study on impact fees, and he addressed the Board's questions.

Day 1 of the two-day work session was recessed at 4:34 p.m.

Day 2 – February 3, 2018

Chair Campbell reconvened the work session at 8:50 a.m.

Coming out of executive session, Mr. Dowling moved that the Board of Education issue a press release stating that subpoenas have been received from the Office of the U.S. Attorney in conjunction with an investigation by the federal government and that the district will be cooperating fully with the investigation (approved).

Chief Instructional Services Officer Dereck Rhoads briefed the board on a draft calendar for the 2018-19 school year. After a discussion by Board members, motion to approve the draft calendar (approved).

Chief Instructional Services Officer Gregory McCord presented a report on in-school and out-of-school suspensions, noting that the number of fall 2017 incidents resulting in suspensions was lower than in fall 2016.

Dr. McCord also reported on the success of middle and high school athletes in meeting the school district's 2.0 minimum GPA requirement during fall semester 2017-18. Ninety-seven percent of Beaufort County's high school student athletes and 95 percent of middle school student athletes maintained their academic eligibility. Beaufort County is one of only two South Carolina districts that require a 2.0 minimum to participate on athletics teams.

Mr. Davis briefed Board members on how the district handles subpoenas received by the school district.

Board members made comments reviewing the two-day work session.

Motion to adjourn the work session was approved, and the work session was adjourned at 12:35 pm.

District staff seeking more detailed information about Board actions can view Board meetings in their entirety, at any time, on the County Channel. Archived meetings may be viewed at this link: <http://www.bcgov.net/departments/community-services/county-channel/index.php>

As always, these offers are for new bookings only and subject to availability. Restrictions may apply. Past guests of some cruise lines may see better rates on select sailings.

Cruises are not only the easiest way to see the world, but they also offer more value for the dollar than any other international vacation option.

Cruise lines can provide such outstanding value because of the efficiency with which they deliver their service.

For example, the typical cruise ship has teams of room stewards, chefs and waiters working seven days a week to clean 1,000 or more cabins per day and prepare and serve three or four meals a day to upward of 2,000 passengers. When the ship sails from the port of departure, the hotel director knows exactly how many meals will be served for the entire cruise, and the vessel has been provisioned accordingly. Every cabin, table and employee is fully utilized, every day.

That's much more efficient and less wasteful than the system land-based hotels and restaurants must employ to serve a much smaller group of customers who vary in number daily.

As ships have gotten larger and cruise lines have grown into billion-dollar enterprises, the cruise lines' huge buying power has reduced their costs for everything consumed on the ship. Plus, larger ships and show lounges spread the cost of entertainers, the captain, officers and cruise director over more people.

And unlike airlines and hotels that accept empty seats and rooms during slow periods, cruise lines will do whatever it takes to sail full. On almost every ship except the six-star vessels, cruise lines will slash prices as low as they need to in order to fill every cabin. Even the six-star lines are now offering discounts that once were unheard of.

They do this for two reasons. First, on most lines, a significant percentage of the crews' compensation comes from gratuities -- and there are no gratuities from empty cabins.

Second, venues such as spas, boutiques, photography studios and excursion desks are completely dependent on onboard purchases, which of course are directly related to the number of people on the ship.

All of this has resulted in fantastic bargains for people cruising today, and Vacations To Go has become the biggest seller of cruises in the world by being the best at finding and negotiating the lowest discounts in the industry, frequently selling them out before other agencies are even aware they exist.

In a small Texas school, boys and girls join to form 1 basketball team

The Associated Press via The Christian Science Monitor

Murissa Horton set her feet, steeled herself, and was knocked to the court taking a charge from a barrel-chested teenage boy who outweighed her by more than 100 pounds. The 5-foot, 6-inch high school senior bounced back up, dusted herself off, adjusted her ponytail, and got back to work. Boys against girls isn't just something you see at practice for the Dawson Dragons. READ MORE

Push grows for shot clock in high school basketball in South Carolina

The State

Longtime Lexington boys basketball coach Bailey Harris said he is torn about the idea of a shot clock coming to high school basketball in South Carolina. "I believe we need it, at 35 or 40 seconds. I hope we get to test it in some tournaments next year," Harris said. "But the administration of it really concerns me." Byrnes boys basketball coach Layne Fowler, who came up with the idea of getting a shot clock in South Carolina, understands those concerns and heard others when he spoke to Class 5A athletic directors concerning his proposal recently at the South Carolina League Office. READ MORE

High school athletes help spread the word about domestic violence among teens

Chicago Sun-Times

Nearly a thousand Chicagoland high school athletes participated in a media campaign launched recently to tell people about violence in teen relationships. To mark National Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month, the teens donated $1,000 and more than 1,000 items, ranging from board games to art supplies, to help victims in counseling, according to Joe Trost, spokesman for the non-profit Buddy's Helpers. These donations went to Between Friends, a nonprofit Chicago group that provides counseling and resources to domestic violence victims. READ MORE

Develop influencers, not just leaders

By Catherine Iste

Talent management and mentoring programs often focus on spotting potential leaders and developing their talent. While having a pipeline of leadership candidates is beneficial, these programs often overlook the importance of influencers. While good leaders are influencers, not all influencers are or want to be leaders. Yet their talents can have a significant impact on all levels of the organization. It is time to start nurturing and rewarding the talents of influencers. READ MORE

How Nick Foles' crazy senior season of high school football shaped him as a player

Sports Illustrated

A former coach describes him as a "Paul-Bunyan, God-like figure." Mack Brown offered him a scholarship to play at Texas on site after only watching his warm up. He was the larger-than-life, vocal leader of the Austin Westlake football team, and at 6-5 and 300 pounds in his prime, offensive lineman Matt Nader could outsprint his quarterback, Nick Foles — Nader's quiet counterpart, a leader by example. Peroneal tendinopathy: Everything you need to know

By Heidi Dawson

With marathon season quickly approaching, many runners' training plans are now starting to increase in intensity, and peroneal tendinopathy is a key topic to be aware of. The peroneal muscles are located on the outside of the lower leg and ankle. These two muscles — the peroneus longus and peroneus brevis — function to evert the foot (turn the sole of the foot outward). This means that when weight-bearing, they are always working to control and stabilize our feet. READ MORE

Athletic Directors,

The final day to complete the SCHSL Spring Online Rules Clinic (for varsity head coaches) without penalty is January 31 and is geared for those that did not attend the SCACA All Sports Clinic last summer.

Please read and share the attached rules clinic handout with your spring sports varsity coaches.

Remember, it is your responsibility to create accounts and/or assign head coach permissions prior to your coaches completing the rules clinic.

The Google Chrome internet browser is strongly recommended when viewing the online rules clinic. Internet Explorer and outdated browsers are not supported and will prompt errors.

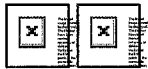

Upon completing the clinic, coaches will be e-mailed a certificate of completion for school purposes only.

If a coach receives an e-mail reminder to complete the online clinic but attended the summer clinic, please disregard the automated message.

If you or your coaches have technical issues with the rules clinic, please e-mail Ryan Bethea at ryanbethea@planeths.com or PlanetHS Support at schoolsupport@planeths.com.

Subject: Last-Minute Royal Caribbean Deals plus Huge Discounts on Holland America, Regent, Viking and More!

Dear Mr. Smith,

I'm pleased to present these terrific offers from Royal Caribbean, Holland America, Regent and Viking. They include shipboard credits, which are as good as cash on the ship and can be used toward onboard purchases not covered in the cruise fare, like shore excursions and spa treatments.

Royal Caribbean is offering our customers huge discounts -- save up to 83% -- as well as exclusive shipboard credits of up to $200 per cabin on last-minute sailings through July 2018. Book by February 26. See dates and prices.

Holland America has reduced rates by up to 83% for Vacations To Go. Also receive exclusive free gratuities and shipboard credits of up to $400 per cabin on select cruises. Book by February 28. See dates and prices.

Regent is offering our customers special reduced rates on select Alaska sailings, as well as huge discounts and exclusive shipboard credits of up to $800 per cabin on a variety of departures, including Mediterranean voyages in 2018. Save up to 84%. The upfront price of a Regent cruise includes unlimited shore excursions, gratuities, unlimited beverages including fine wines and premium spirits and unlimited Wi-Fi. See dates and prices.

Viking has reduced rates by up to 52% for our customers. Plus, receive free airfare from select gateways on applicable Caribbean itineraries from San Juan, and pay reduced airfare from select gateways as follows: Fly from $195 per person on select Alaska, Cuba, Canada/New England, Caribbean and Panama Canal itineraries; fly from $696 per person on eligible Asia departures; and fly from $795 per person on select European cruises. Book by February 28. See dates and prices.

As always, these offers are for new bookings only and subject to availability. Restrictions may apply. Past guests of some cruise lines may see better rates on select sailings.

Windstar returns to Alaska this summer after a more than 20-year absence. Among its itineraries in this spectacular region are cruise tours of 15 to 20 nights, including two trans-Pacific repositionings from and to Yokohama, Japan, a port for Tokyo.

These vacations combine a sailing aboard the 212-passenger Star Legend (several feature a voyage up Misty Fjords National Monument past the point where larger ships must turn around) with a multiday land tour that includes a train ride in a domed railcar and a stay in Denali National Park and Preserve.

Norwegian has released a limited number of longer cruises that incorporate Cuba and other Caribbean destinations. In addition to four-night sailings that call at Havana and the private Bahamian isle of Great Stirrup Cay, the line offers seven-, nine- and 13-night voyages in September and October that visit the Cuban capital and ports like Harvest Caye, Belize, and Costa Maya, Mexico. The 13-night trip includes a partial Panama Canal transit. All sailings depart round-trip from Miami.

Avalon Waterways has introduced new Active Discovery river cruises in Europe and new journeys along the legendary Mekong River in Southeast Asia. Plus, Avalon offers these money-saving promotions for our customers:

Save an additional $500 per couple ($250 per person) off the air-inclusive price of select Europe cruises.

Save $2,500 per couple ($1,250 per person) off certain river cruises in Europe. This is combinable with the air promotion above.

Save $1,000 to $2,000 per couple ($500 to $1,000 per person) off 2018 and 2019 Asia cruises.

To see all Avalon offers, click here.

New for 2018, Active Discovery on the Rhine offers a bike tour along the river, a painting class in Amsterdam, participation in the Roman Games in Xanten and a wine tasting in Eltville am Rhein. On Active Discovery on the Danube, guests can bicycle through Budapest and join a sunrise walking tour of Vienna, including breakfast at an authentic Viennese cafe.

The upfront price of an Avalon European voyage, in one of their Panorama SuitesSM, includes a river-view stateroom with beds facing the windows, onboard meals, Wi-Fi, guided sightseeing, sparkling wine at breakfast and soft drinks, beer and wine at lunch and dinner.

Avalon's Mekong River sailings take in the dazzling sights and sounds of Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City and the temples of Angkor. Spend time with farmers, artisans, monks and students to learn about local life. New options include The Heart of Cambodia & Vietnam and Ultimate Southeast Asia & The Majestic Mekong.

Holland America debuted America's Test Kitchen programs on its ships last year, bringing cooking demonstrations and hands-on classes to state-of-the-art seagoing culinary centers. Now the line has created three cruises that feature experts from the multimedia brand. These sailings offer onboard cooking shows, Q-and-A sessions and recipe workshops with ATK's magazine food editors and stars from its shows, such as host Bridget Lancaster and tasting lab guru Jack Bishop.

The featured sailings are a seven-day Alaska cruise from Vancouver on May 6 (FastDeal #34957), a 14-night Northern Europe voyage from Copenhagen on July 7 (FastDeal #21012) and a seven-night Canada/New England sailing from Montreal on September 22. (FastDeal #15692)

Celebrity now offers small-group, culturally enriching shore excursions for passengers on Western Mediterranean cruises. Called the Celebrity Discovery Collection, tours are limited to 24 guests and designed to provide more unique, personal travel experiences.

For example, in Barcelona's Gothic Quarter, take a private tour of the Basilica de Santa Maria del Pi followed by a concert of medieval music. In Nice, visit one of France's oldest wine shops for tastings, then have lunch at the restaurant of a Michelin-starred chef in nearby St. Paul de Vence.

Subject: Exclusive Cruise Deals plus 16 New Cruise Ships on Sale

Dear Mr. Smith,

Here are several money-saving deals that we've arranged with Princess, Carnival, Silversea, MSC, Windstar and Paul Gauguin Cruises. They include shipboard credits, which are as good as cash on the ship and can be used toward onboard purchases not covered in the cruise fare, like shore excursions and spa treatments.

Princess is offering Vacations To Go customers big discounts -- save up to 75%. In addition, receive exclusive shipboard credits of up to $250 per cabin on a variety of cruises in Europe, the Caribbean and Alaska (including Alaska cruise tours that combine a coastal sailing with an inland tour package). Book by March 12. See dates and prices.

Carnival has slashed fares by up to 84% for our customers. Also receive an exclusive shipboard credit of $50 per cabin and pay reduced deposits as follows: from $50 per person for sailings of two to nine days (excluding Alaska voyages and departures on the Carnival Vista and Carnival Horizon), from $149 per person for Caribbean trips on the Carnival Vista and Carnival Horizon, and from $199 per person for Alaska and Europe sailings and voyages of 10 or more days. Book by February 28. See dates and prices.

Silversea is offering our customers discounts of up to 85% and exclusive shipboard credits of up to $2,000 per cabin across all 2018 cruises. Your Silversea fare includes onboard gratuities, complimentary beverages including wine and spirits and butler service. Book by March 4. See dates and prices.

MSC is offering our customers exclusive rates on last-minute departures to the Caribbean -- save up to 71%. See dates and prices.

Windstar is providing exclusive rates and big discounts on a variety of upcoming sailings, including Panama Canal transits. Our customers can save up to 79%. The line's sailing ships and power yachts visit an array of alluring ports, many of which are inaccessible to larger ships. Book by March 19. See dates and prices.

Paul Gauguin Cruises, which sails year-round in French Polynesia, is offering Vacations To Go customers exclusive pricing on select last-minute departures, for savings of up to 62%. Also enjoy exclusive shipboard credits of up to $300 per cabin on certain departures. See dates and prices.

As always, these offers are for new bookings only and subject to availability. Restrictions may apply. Past guests of some cruise lines may see better rates on select sailings.

I'm pleased to announce that we now sell the cruise vacations of Saga Cruises, a British line that caters to travelers age 50 and older. It provides a boutique experience on the 449-guest Saga Pearl II and 720-guest Saga Sapphire. A new ship, the 999-passenger Spirit of Discovery, launches in 2019 (you can read more about this vessel in my roundup of upcoming inaugurals below).

Our customers can save up to 46% off Saga's voyages. See dates and prices.

Saga sails in Northern Europe, the Mediterranean, British Isles, Canary Islands and more, often calling at uncommon ports not usually seen on the itineraries of bigger ships. Cruises start from the southern England cities of Dover, Portsmouth and Southampton, all within 75 to 85 miles of central London.

On board, guests enjoy a refined yet relaxed atmosphere and amenities like a spa, gym, library, cinema and daily activities. Ships have a variety of lounges and dining venues, with open seating in the main restaurant, and complimentary 24-hour room service. The rate includes wines with lunch and dinner, gratuities and Wi-Fi.

Click here to read about Saga's ships and see departures and rates.

Sixteen ships from a dozen cruise lines currently are scheduled to embark on their maiden voyages between now and October 2019. All are new-builds except for one existing ship that will be refurbished and renamed.

As is always the case when new ships hit the market, all of this new inventory will ensure a continuing supply of deep discounts -- on virtually all ships -- for Vacations To Go customers, especially those who can wait to book within 90 days of departure.

Click here to go straight to a list of these upcoming ships and their inaugural voyages. Or, read on for a few details about each vessel and links to departure dates and discounts.
